Jim Holton

Your new address here at Holton way has been chosen to commemorate Scottish footballer and local legend Jim Holton. Born in Lesmahagow in 1951, Jim played in 15 international matches for Scotland scoring two goals. One of those goals came in a win against Czechoslovakia that helped Scotland qualify for the 1974 FIFA World Cup. He played in all three Scotland games at that tournament. As a centre-back he played for Shrewsbury Town, Manchester United, Miami Toros, Sunderland, Coventry City and Detroit Express. Near unbeatable in the air and assertive in the tackle, he was a great favourite at United inspiring the fan chant -‘Six foot two, eyes of blue, big Jim Holton’s after you’. Never mind that Jim’s eyes were brown it never failed to strike fear in the heart of the opposition.
